

ALMA

Hello and welcome to the beginning of Alma!

We are creators and organizers of all-inclusive experiences that can take place anywhere on the planet. These experiences are based on discovery, wonder, an embrace of our senses, and the rhythm of the natural world. They can take the shape of an intuitive walk in the forest, a meeting with ancient cultures, or a journey into the wild with experts in their field. Our goal is to help our guests reconnect to themselves by connecting with nature.

In order to do this, we want to assemble a community of kindred spirits whose intuition and passion has guided them to where they are today. This is why you have received our invitation.

About us, the people behind Alma:

As individuals, we believe in cultivating human connection and want to create moments that will excite imagination, appeal to curious minds, trigger a smile, bring back memories, and create new ones.

We want to surprise and be surprised, leave room for the unexpected.

We embed meaning in everything we do.

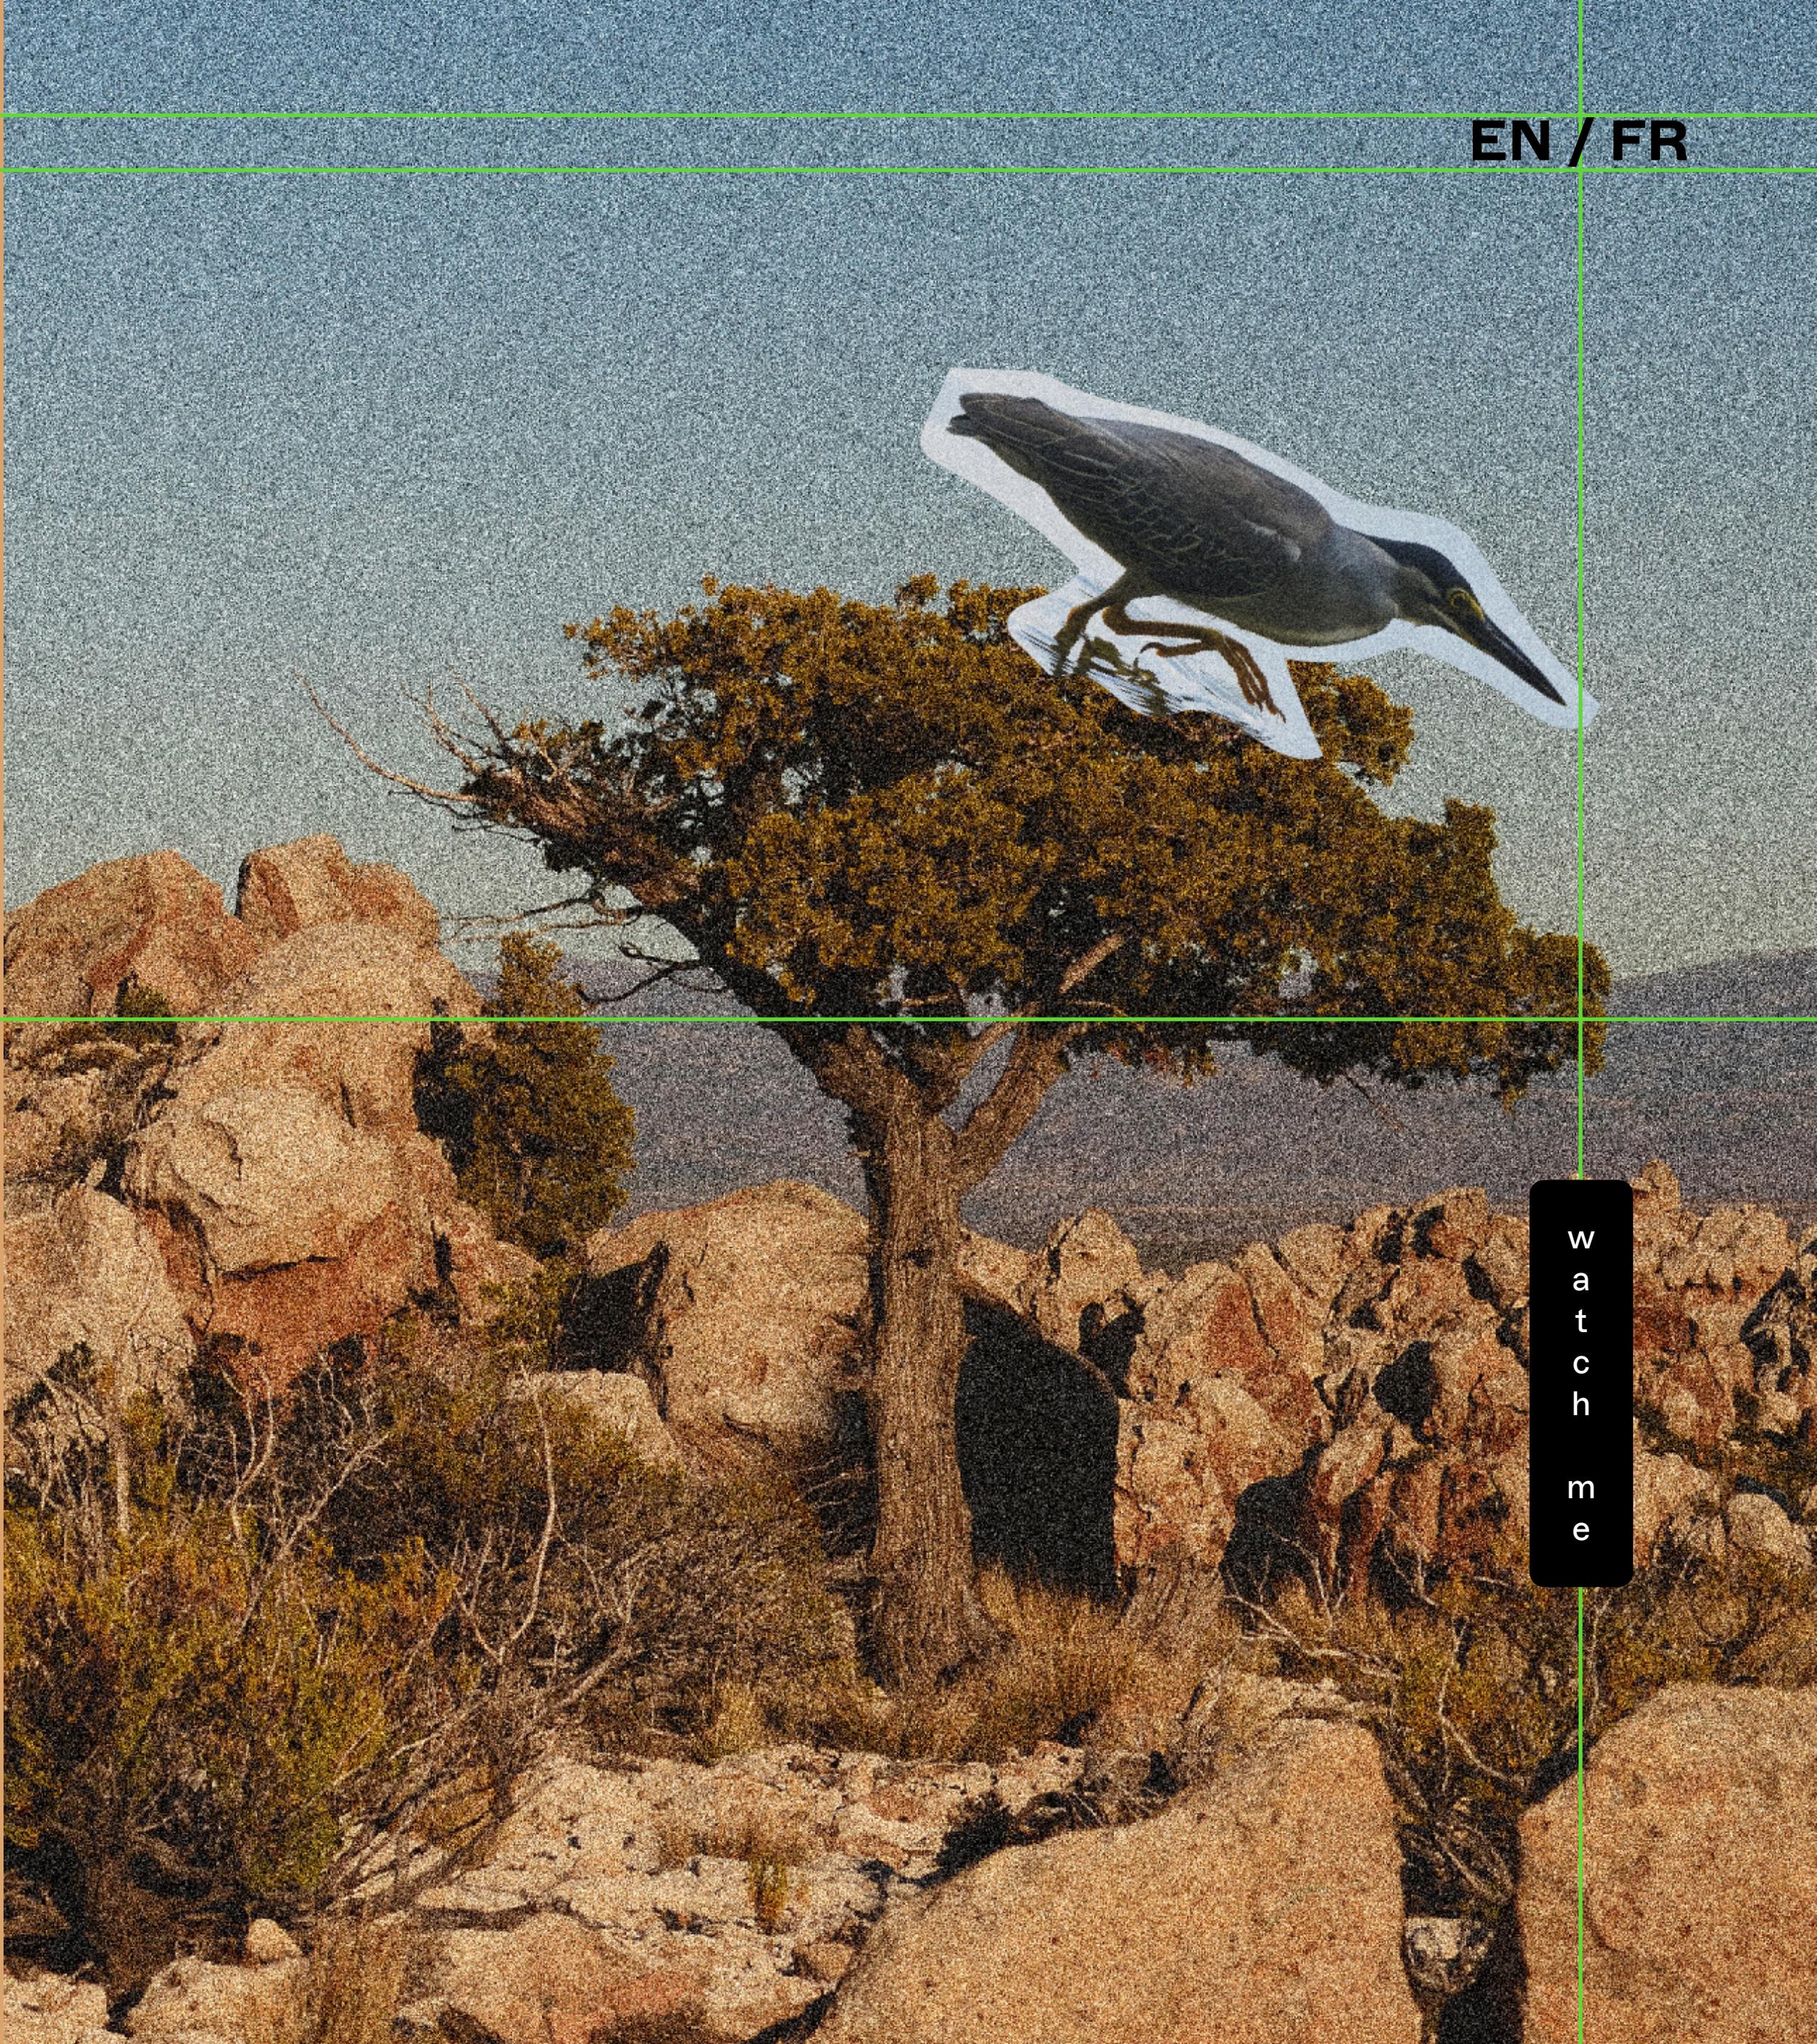

We see beauty in pretty much everything.

We curate works by those who have shared values.

We find infinite inspiration in our environment, whether natural, built, social, or cultural.

If any of what we're up to sounds interesting to you, please let us know. We have so much more to share and would love to explore the possibility of co-creating together!
